

Top Words in Spoken American English - #181-185

	Word	Part of speech	Meaning & Notes	Sample Sentences
181	Used	Verb adjective	To finish Used to - something done often in the past Not new - had an owner before you Expression with used to - become accustomed to	I used all the toothpaste. We need to buy some more. I used to have dog when I was a kid. We always used to go swimming in the lake during the summer. I'm going to buy a used car since I don't have a lot of money. The rain doesn't bother me. I'm used to it.
182	Getting	verb	Get often means to buy or acquire Often used to talk about something you will do very soon. Get can also mean become (changing from one status to another)	I'm so excited. We're getting a new car. Frank and Maggie are getting married this weekend. Are you getting sick ? You don't look well. Are you getting used to the weather in Portland.
183	Same	adjective	equal	That's the same jacket I saw at the mall, but it's much cheaper here. Let's go to the same restaurant we went to last week. You always eat the same thing for lunch. You should try something different.
184	Four	Number	4	I get off work at 4:00 (four o'clock). I want a house with four bedrooms.
185	Every		Repeat with day, week, month, year All - everywhere, everything, everybody	We go to church every Sunday. Almost everybody loves ice cream.

Top Words in Spoken American English - #186-190

	Word	Pt of speech	Meaning & Notes	Sample Sentences
186	New	adjective		That's a great sweater! Is it new ? We just bought a new house.
187	Everything	pronoun	All things	I love Portland. Everything is so green and beautiful. You need to help more. I always have to do everything . Is everything okay?
188	Many	adjective	Lots, use with plural count nouns Often used with too or so	How many chairs do you need? I've been to Seattle many times . There are too many people here. It's hard to choose. There are so many good-looking desserts.
189	Before	Conj.	earlier	I want to eat something before we go. Before I came to the U.S., I didn't know English. You shouldn't drink coffee before bed.
190	Though	Conj.	Even though, although Added to the end of an excuse	Even though it rained, we still went for a walk. Wife: You look like a homeless person in those pants. Husband: But I love them though .

Bonus word:

whatever	slang	Often used to show you don't like or refuse to accept what the other person said. Shows disrespect	Mom: You need to be home by midnight. Daughter: Whatever!
----------	-------	--	---

Top Words in Spoken American English - #191-195

	Word	Part of speech	Meaning & Notes	Sample Sentences
191	Most	adjective	Majority Superlative comparisons	Most nights, I stay home. Most people are honest. What's the most popular song right now? The most expensive store in the mall is Nordstrom.
192	Tell	verb	Talk - is followed by a noun or pronoun Can tell/can't tell = don't know/can't see	Tell me everything. The boss will tell us about the secret project today. Tell Amy what you just told me. What's happening outside? I can't tell . Don't worry about the whole in your shorts. Nobody can tell .
193	Being	verb	Behavior/action Often used as a negative command - Stop being Can be used as the subject of a sentence followed by adjective.	Why are you crying? Stop being such a baby. Stop being so dramatic. It's no big deal. Being happy is important.
194	Bit	noun	A small amount	I need a little bit more time to finish. Can you give me a bit more wine?
195	House	noun	home	Your house is very beautiful. We had Thanksgiving at my house .

Top Words in Spoken American English - #196-200

	Word	Part of speech	Meaning & Notes	Sample Sentences
196	Also	Conjunction adverb	In addition, and	Could you bring something to drink also ? We went to the zoo, and we also went to the movies. I like to swim. I also love to go sailing.
197	Use	verb		Can I use your phone for a minute? I need to use the restroom? Do you want to use the sink or the hose outside?
198	Through	preposition	Giving directions Finished Make contact by phone	Go through the lobby and turn right. Are you through with the job? Let me know when you get through . The phone lines aren't working. I wasn't able to get through .
199	Feel	verb	Opinion	I'm leaving. I feel kind of sick. Don't feel bad. You'll win next time. How do you feel about the new product? I feel like we should do more to help.
200	course	noun	Expression - of course Class An established route strategy	Can I use your restroom? Of course . Which course are you taking? In this game, you need to keep the car on the course . Jerry has a house on the golf course . The best course of action is to wait and see.